Well that's the tree I thought you were talking about. I don't think it's dead. I do think it needs to be trimmed. I do think it's on LAWA property. I also think it's a protected oak tree. Let's ask John Ruhlen.

John, is this tree behind Ralph's Market dead? Is it an oak tree or something else?

I have never involved myself too much with the west side of Sepulveda Westway and haven't seen those shopping carts before. Now that I have, I can have the lock cut, if you'd like me to.

What sidewalk, where?

Hi Don,

Karen asked that I send you a picture of the tree she said was dead.

I also included a picture of two shopping carts that I believe have been chained to that pole for a while. If memory serves me (not always) I sent ricky out there with bolt cutters, but they weren't big enough to do the job.

I will have andy look at the sidewalk ....we may decide we want to pay for it ourselves. I will keep you posted.
